

HENC in cooperation with TWI, proudly announces

CSWIP Plant Inspector eLearning program ATHENS

This course is designed for someone working or wish to work as engineering, technical, operations, maintenance or inspection operative within the oil and gas production, chemical process, power generation, utilities, commercial works (vendor) inspection organisation, classification society or insurance company.

Course Contents:

Basics of plant Inspection, Inspection and design of pressure vessels, Inspection and design of process piping, Inspection and design of above ground storage tanks, Common damage mechanisms and inspection strategy, Material inspection and verification, Basics of welding, Welding procedures, Destructive testing, Non Destructive Examination (NDE), Fundamentals of Risk Based Inspection (RBI), Inspection, examination and pressure testing practices, Inspection interval, frequency and extent of inspection, Fundamentals of repair, re-rating and alteration, Fundamentals of painting and cathodic protection, Quality assurance

Entry Requirements:

If you wish to attend the course, you must submit a copy of your CV for review. Ideally, you would hold qualifications in NDE and weld inspection, engineering academic qualifications and experience in this field.

Info:

When you have booked your online course, you will receive from an email notification with your login details. You will then have 60 days to complete your distance-learning course. Once you have completed the eLearning course, you will take the exams in HENC's premises, Perama-Greece. The examination is 125 multiple choice questions.

Total Cost 1.800 €

More info and Course Applications: 0030 2106256706

www.henc.gr

www.twitraining.com

info@henc.gr